

Army Reserve 2019 Small Arms Championships

24-28 August 2019
Camp Atterbury, Indiana

This training event is open to all Army Reserve Soldiers, NCOs, and Officers. The comprehensive small arms training includes use of both primary and secondary issue weapons conducted in issue uniform and gear against a variety of targetry and challenging scenarios to encourage problem solving and critical thinking under stress to improve lethality and combat readiness within the Army Reserve. Reserve Soldiers can participate individually and as a team.

Instruction, qualification, and Excellence In Competition are available for all participants.
